Update 999 Guidance – publishing of additional response to consultation

The Jersey Competition Regulatory Authority (the Authority) recently consulted on proposals to update its Guidance on the Provision of a Public Emergency Call Service (999 Guidance). In August 2024, the Authority concluded this process by issuing a final decision document along with non-confidential consultation responses.

The Authority also received and considered a consultation response from JT (Jersey) Limited, with a request to not publish its contents. JT subsequently agreed to the publication of its consultation response, with the document now available on the Authority's website.
